The Clothesline Project

The Clothesline Project is held four times throughout the year to benefit the Salvation Army of the Midlands, which was established in 1906. The organization has focused on those living in extreme poverty in the community for over 100 years. The Salvation Army is an evangelical part of the universal Christian Church. Proceeds and unsold clothing from The Clothesline Project will be donated directly to the Salvation Army.

Fundraising

Putting "Fun" in fun-raising!
